SCHEDULING ORDER

AND NOW, this 16th day of July, 2002, following a Preliminary Pretrial Conference on said date, the parties, through counsel, having reported that they are interested in discussing the question of settlement after completion of some discovery, IT IS ORDERED that the parties, through counsel, shall, on or before September 30, 2002, jointly report to the Court in writing (letter to Chambers, Room 12613) with respect to whether or not the case is settled. In the event the case has not settled on or before September 30, 2002, counsel shall include in their joint report a statement as to whether they believe a settlement conference before a magistrate judge might be of assistance in resolving the case and, if so, by what date they will be prepared for such a conference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the case shall proceed on the following schedule:

2. All trial exhibits shall be marked and exchanged on or before November 15, 2002;
3. The parties reported that they did not plan to call any expert witnesses on liability.

On or before September 16, 2002, plaintiffs shall identify and submit curriculum vitae for all expert witnesses on damages. On or before October 7, 2002, plaintiffs shall serve defendant with reports and/or responses to expert witness discovery for all such expert witnesses.

On or before October 21, 2002, defendant shall identify and submit curriculum vitae for all expert witnesses on damages. On or before November 8, 2002, defendant shall serve plaintiffs with reports and/or responses to expert witness discovery for all such expert witnesses;

4. Any party expecting to offer opinion testimony from lay witnesses pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 701 with respect to the issues of liability or damages shall, at the time required for submission of information and/or reports for expert witnesses on damages, serve opposing parties with details and/or documents covering the lay opinions of the Rule 701 witnesses;

5. Any motions for summary judgment shall be filed and served on or before November 22, 2002. Responses to any motions for summary judgment shall be filed and served within the time provided under the Local Civil Rules of this Court. Two copies of any motions and responses shall be served on the Court (Chambers, Room 12613) when the originals are filed;;

6. All parties shall prepare and file with the Clerk of Court their Pretrial Memoranda, in accordance with this Order and Local Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1(c) as follows:

A. Plaintiff - on or before January 24, 2003.

B. Defendant - on or before January 31, 2003.

One (1) copy of each Pretrial Memorandum shall be served on the Court (Chambers, Room 12613) when the original is filed;

9. If any party desires an "offer of proof" as to any witness or exhibit expected to be offered, that party shall inquire of counsel prior to trial for such information. If the inquiring party is dissatisfied with any offer provided, such party shall file a motion seeking relief from the Court prior to trial;

10. Because a witness may be unavailable at the time of trial as defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32(a)(3), the Court expects use of oral or videotape depositions at trial of any witness whose testimony a party believes essential to the presentation of that party's case, whether that witness is a party, a non-party or an expert. The unavailability of any such witness will not be a ground to delay the commencement or progress of an ongoing trial. In the event a deposition is to be offered, the offering party shall file with the Court, prior to the commencement of the trial, a copy of the deposition transcript, but only after all efforts have been made to resolve objections with other counsel. If a model jury instruction taken, for instance, from O'Malley, Grenig & Lee, Federal Jury Practice and Instructions, or Sand, Modern Federal Jury Instructions is submitted, the parties shall state whether the proposed jury instruction is unchanged or modified. If a party modifies a model jury instruction the modification shall be set forth in the following manner: additions shall be underlined and deletions shall be placed in brackets;

13. At least three (3) days before the case appears on the trial list, the parties shall submit to the Court (Chambers, Room 12613) a joint written statement of the case for reading to the jury at the commencement of the trial which shall cover (a) a brief statement of the facts; (b) a brief statement of plaintiff's cause(s) of action and the essential elements of each cause of action; and, (c) a brief statement of the defenses and the essential elements of each affirmative defense. The statement of the case shall not exceed three (3) pages in length; and,
